MEADOW IN WINNING FORM

WADE McLEMORE'S GOOD MARE BEGINS HER WINTER RACING AUSPICIOUSLY.

Takes Juarez Race at Seven-Eighths of a Mile in Which Two Well-Fancied Contenders Have Bad Racing Luck—Kiva a Repeater.

El Paso, Tex., December 3.—Cloudy weather prevailed today, but it did not prevent the ladies from being out in force to witness the racing at Juarez. The card was of fair caliber and pressaged interesting sport. The steliar attraction was a race out of the seven-furlongs chute, which marked the first appearance for the season of Meadow, a strong local favorite. She won the purse in a drive with Console. The race was hardly a true run one, as Melton Street, the favorite, and Irish Gentleman, were almost as good as left at the post. It appeared as if both propped just as the barrier arose. Melton Street was rushed up close to the leaders in the early racing but quit at the end as a result of the excessive use made of him.

Inquieta, the favorite in the opening race of the day, had the misfortune to have her saddle turn completely around three-eighths from the finish. Nathan could not control his mount and she started to bear out, carrying Sprightly Miss with her. The latter finished a game third. Kiva won the race quite handily.

Jockey Groth piloted three winners during the afternoon. In the fifth race he had the mount on Rio Brazos and was two lengths in the lead, when J. McCabe, who was following with Sister Florence, the favorite, took her to the rail. Groth moved his mount towards the rail by degrees, but was in the clear all the time, shutting off Sister Florence. McCabe claimed foul, but Presiding Steward Price was of the opinion that he went to the inside when he should have gone to the outside. The foul was not allowed.

Joe Tigue arrived last night, accompanied by Jockey Kederis, with nine horses from Jamestown. Seneca, Pride of Lismore and Dudo are among the lot.

R. J. Farris is a late arrival from Denver with two, Ben Uncas and Minnie F.

E. J. Ramsey is here from California to spend the winter.

C. W. Carroll arrived this afternoon with fourteen of A. B. Spreckels' horses, including nine yearlings, three three-year-olds and two two-year-olds. He came from Napa, Cal. Mr. Carroll reports that the horses stood the trip well.

W. C. Clancy returned from New York, where he made arrangements to train for a gentleman located there. He is to have three colts shipped from Lexington, Ky., two being three-year-olds by Hastings and the other a yearling by Nasturtium.

Roy B., a two-year-old belonging to Doerhoefer & West died today of pneumonia.

J. G. Follansbee, president of the Jockey Club Juarez, arrived late this afternoon from New York. Mr. Follansbee was much pleased with the appearance of the course.

Price McKinney left last night for his home in Cleveland, Ohio. He will return for the holidays.

Horace Paul and Will Hall made up a new aggregation that joined the layers' ranks today.

WORTH WINNER OF OVER $25,000.

H. C. Hallenbeck's great three-year-old, Worth, whose death took place at Baltimore last week as a result of blood poisoning following the severing of a tendon in a race at Pimlico, was the winner of $25,590 during his brief but brilliant career as a racer. Worth was the acknowledged champion among the two-year-olds of 1911, during which year he won ten of his thirteen starts. His successes as a juvenile included the winning of the Raceland Stakes at Lexington, the Bashford Manor Stakes at Churchill Downs and a $10,000 match race with Sprite at Latonia. This season his most notable feat was the winning of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. His races as a three-year-old, it is the general opinion, were not quite up to the promise of his two-year-old form, although he was not far behind the best of his age in training and certainly was in the first flight among the three-year-olds of the season. He was generally pitted against the best horses to be found in training and was almost invariably a contender.

Worth was purchased in May, 1911, by H. C. Hallenbeck from Gallaher Bros. for the reported price of $10,000. He was bred by R. H. McCarter Potter, master of the Pequest Stud, Andover, N. J., but he was foaled at the establishment of John H. Morris on a portion of the old Woodburn Farm, near Spring Station, Ky., where for several years Mr. Potter kept a number of his mares. Worth was foaled March 15, 1909, and was the most robust of all the colts of that year at Woodburn. He was taken to Lexington during the race meeting of the Kentucky Association in September, 1910, and was sold in the Kentucky Sales Company's auction of thoroughbreds to Charles T. Worthington, of Danville, Ky., for $425. Mr. Worthington turned him over to Gallaher Bros. to be broken and trained and by the time the brothers were ready to ship their stable to Jacksonville for the winter meeting he had demonstrated that he possessed more than ordinary merit. During the winter they developed such a fancy for him that they bought him from Mr. Worthington for $3,500.

Worth was a brother to Brown Thistle and Great Jubilee, neither of which has especially distinguished himself. His sire, the English stallion Knight of the Thistle, is a son of Rosebery, the first horse to win in the same year the Cambridgeshire and Cesarewitch Handicaps, and The Empress Maude. The best of his get, aside from Worth, are McCarter, Jake Sanders and Jacquin. Miss Hanover, the dam of Worth, is a daughter of Hanover, and was a good race mare. She won her first start, running the straight five-eighths over the Eclipse course at Morris Park in :58, and behind her in that race were Pink Domino, the dam of Sweep, and Curiosity, the dam of Novelty. Miss Dawn, Dawn of Day and Lottie Moon, respectively the second, third and fourth dams of Worth, were all winners. Miss Dawn was the dam of the good winners Simon D. and Early. It is a family of hardy, sturdy horses, of which Cash Day, a brother to Miss Dawn, is probably the star.

Worth possessed an ability to run well in any kind of going and was equally at home at sprinting or staying. He was a horse of comparatively small size, but a good weight carrier and as game as a pebble. Being an honest, consistent racer, he had a great and loyal following in Kentucky, the scene of his most notable triumphs. He leaves this record to show for his two years on the track:

JUVENILE WINNERS OF THE PRESENT YEAR

November racing enabled Star Shoot, the premier stallion of America last year and this, to take first place as the sire of the juveniles of the year, as well as of horses of all ages. When the list of the juvenile winners of the year was published in Daily Racing Form last month Marta Santa had a slight lead over Star Shoot in number of winners, but was considerably behind from the standpoint of money won. Now these two stallions are tied in the former item, with Star Shoot's get still far in the lead in respect to the aggregate of winnings. Each stallion has fifteen winners to his credit, while Cesarion, next in order, has eleven. The complete list of the winning juveniles of the year, grouped under their respective sires, is embraced in the following tabulation:

PETER PAN FOR FRANCE

JAMES R. KEENE'S FAMOUS COMMANDO STALLION SOLD TO GO ABROAD.

Horse Will Accompany Keene Mares Sold to W. K. Vanderbilt When They Leave Lexington Today —Name of Purchaser Not Disclosed.

Lexington, Ky., December 3.—Peter Pan, the eight-year-old son of Commando and Cinderella, by Hermit, which in his two years on the turf won ten of his eighteen races and earned $116,450 for James R. Keene, is going to France. He will leave here tomorrow for New York in charge of Phil Chinn and will accompany the seven mares that Mr. Chiun recently bought for W. K. Vanderbilt from Mr. Keene, and Ocean Bound, which was sold by Clay Brothers to J. E. Widener of Philadelphia. The presumption here is that Frank Gould gets Peter Pan and that he paid $100,000 for him. It is known that Mr. Gould wanted this great horse and that Mr. Keene refused $82,000 for him a short while ago, declaring that he would not take a cent less than $100,000 for the horse. It may be that some one else has since decided to buy him.

"I am not informed as to the purchaser," said Mr. Chinn this evening. "I know only that I am to take him to France and that I will get instructions as to whom he is to be delivered when I arrive in New York. The telegram I received from Mr. Keene was mostly an order to get the horse at Castleton Farm. Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield phoned me today that instructions had come from Mr. Keene to turn Peter Pan over to me."

Mr. Chinn will also take John A. Drake's stallion Ort Wells, a son of King Eric and Tea's Over, by Hanover. He goes to George Ehler, Sr., of Deutcher Sport, Berlin, Germany.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

P. J. Dwyer has arrived at Hot Springs, Ark., en route to Juarez.

Jockey Byrne will ride in Europe next year. He will spend the winter at his home in Providence.

Charles Kohler's Gold Blade, ridden by F. Williams, won the Prix Normandie at Auteuil, in France, Sunday. There were twelve starters. The twenty franc mutuels paid 173 francs on the winner.

The lung fever that carried off Bob Co also caused the death of his stablemate, Merry Beau, the three-year-old bay gelding by Oddfellow—Belle of St. Louis, in Dillard Hill's private stable at Lexington.

Mrs. Annie Clay McDowell, aged seventy-three, granddaughter of Henry Clay, widow of Maj. H. C. McDowell, a famous trotting horseman and mother of Thomas C. McDowell, the popular owner of The Manager and other good thoroughbred horses, is critically ill at Ashland, her ancestral home in Kentucky.

The old grandstand which formerly stood upon the Oakley Racetrack, near Cincinnati, but which is now a part of a realty subdivision, may be converted into a modern apartment house. A deal was closed yesterday whereby the grandstand, the old betting shed and about fifteen acres of ground were acquired by Dr. G. W. Hunter of Chicago.

A VETERAN THAT IS STILL WINNING.

Warner Griswell, the eight-year-old son of Ornus and Sarah, is a veteran of the track that is still winning races. He has already been a participant in 271 races, of which he has won fifty-one. This year he has scored four times and his winnings aggregate $14,765. Warner Griswell at one time raced in the colors of Pat Dunne and has since changed hands several times. At present he is the property of J. Haymaker. His racing record is as follows:

Warner Griswell, br. g. (1904), by Ornus—Sarah.

WHY JOCKEY CLUB STAYS AT WOODBINE.

Commenting on the decision of the Ontario Jockey Club to remain at Woodbine Park for the present, the Toronto Globe says: "In a way, the club had no alternative to this conclusion, the transportation question presenting an unsurmountable obstacle to the present use of the property purchased at Long Branch for the establishment of a new course. This case is another justification of R. Home Smith's 'barbarous Toronto.' The Ontario Jockey Club was prepared to establish a few miles from the city limits a recreation plant representing an expediture of half a million dollars, but has to forego its plans because there is not now, and no one knows when there will be, any adequate means of transportating its patrons to and from the place. The futility of attempting it under present conditions may be realized by imagining conditions at the Union Station, say on Victoria Day, with eight or ten thousand people added to the traffic that already is immensely beyond the equipment that attempts to handle it."

KENTUCKY SHIPMENT TO CHARLESTON.

Lexington, Ky., December 3.—Four carloads of thoroughbred horses in training from the Kentucky Association course were merged with a special train of four other cars from Latonia and three cars from Louisville here this afternoon and tonight they are rolling toward Charleston, S. C., where they are to be quartered for the winter and spring meeting that is to open January 25, according to the plans of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association. Among those that went from here were G. W. J. Bissell's twelve, J. W. May's ten, John Goode's eight; O. H. Chenault's five, A. D. Steele's four, Lee Christy's four, and J. D. Stevens' three.

In the cars from Latonia and Louisville were the strings of James S. Everman, J. R. Wainwright, Barney Schreiber, F. G. Hering, O. Hak, Eugene Lutz, Wayne O. Joplin, Herman R. Brandt, W. F. Schulte, C. F. Buschemeyer, Theo A. Abadie, S. H. Kunz and Hickey & Clure.

AFTER BOOKMAKERS AT NORFOLK.

Norfolk, Va., December 3.—Indictments charging violations of the state law prohibiting betting on horse races were returned Saturday by a special grand jury against twelve bookmakers who had been laying odds against horses at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track. Only four of the indicted men were found, however, when officers went to make arrests and they were bailed for their appearance in court in the sum of $1,000 each.

†Omitted from entries. Time, 24⅘, 49⅗, 1:15⅘. Track slow.

Winner—Br. g. by Woolsthorpe—Dictynna (trained by C. Howell).

Went to post at 2:42. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. QUID NUNC, after being a forward contender from the start, wore ANGELUS down in the stretch racing and, standing a drive through the final eighth, won drawing clear. ANGELUS began slowly, but closed a gap and, taking the lead on the last turn, appeared the winner at the paddock gate, but tired in the final drive. SILVER GRAIN closed up ground and finished resolutely. LOUIS DES COGNETS quit in the stretch when appearing to have a chance. LESCAR closed a big gap and bears watching. ABE SLUPSKEY set the early pace and quit badly.

Scratched—6240 Ethel Samson, 100; 4444 Ruby Knight, 105.

Overweights—Abe Slupskey, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Brush—Roseling (trained by P. M. West).

Went to post at 3:16. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. GOLD OF OPHIR went into the lead at once and, making the running all the way, finished gamely under punishment. MISS KORN began fast, but moved up fast in the final quarter and finished gaining steadily. GOLDEN AGNES tired after being in closest pursuit from the start. BALCLIFF ran a good race and finished close up. TRANSPARENT quit badly after running forwardly to the homestretch. SONG OF ROCKS ran well.

Overweights—Transparent, 4 pounds.

Winner—Br. m. by Leonid—Dolly Hayman (trained by T. B. Mumford).

Went to post at 3:39. At post 2 minutes. Start bad and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. MEADOW was saved in the early running, but moved up rapidly after passing the half and, taking the lead in the stretch, outgamed CONSOLE at the end. CONSOLE ran well and made a fast and game stretch effort. FURLONG set a fast early pace and tired in the final eighth, but hung on resolutely. MELTON STREET and IRISH GENTLEMAN had no chance at the start, both appearing to prop just as the barrier arose. JIM L. showed a good turn of early speed.

Scratched—(6143) Fayette, 105.

Overweights—Irish Gentleman, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Modred—Helen Print (trained by R. S. Plunkett).

Went to post at 4:09. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. RIO BRAZOS ran into the lead early and, setting a good pace, won all the way, but crossed over in front of SISTER FLORENCE when the latter was coming fast in the stretch, for which a foul was claimed, but not allowed. SISTER FLORENCE ran well and, making a fast finish, should do well from now on. LOVE DAY was always a forward contender and made a game challenge when an eighth out, but could not get up. MANDADERO ran a good three-quarters, then quit badly.

Overweights—Mandadero, 1 pound.

Winner—Blk. g. by Lithos—Eugenia S. (trained by D. W. Kelley).

Went to post at 4:38. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. ENGRAVER ran in closest pursuit of LUCILLE ALLEN until the paddock was reached, then forged to the front and won going away. LUCILLE ALLEN set a fast pace from the start, but tired badly in the final sixteenth. BOB LYNCH ran well up with the two leaders all the way, but was always held safe by them. MUFF ran fairly well. The others were beaten off at the end.
